Follow Up Report # SL 1 - NOT COMPLETED

I asked how much she had to drink. She stated that she had 1 drink while there called a lemon drop. She had two glasses of wine before getting there and 2 other shots of alcohol called a fire ball. 3 shots total including the lemon drop. [REDACTED] began consuming the drinks at 1900 hrs. The shots called fireballs were consumed at a club called deuces wild.

I asked [REDACTED] how she knows Greg. She stated that she met him at the location a month prior. [REDACTED] stated she was there once and exchanged numbers. [REDACTED] stated that Greg told her she was cute and asked for her phone number. He texted her a few times and they were all getting to know you type questions. Greg wanted her to go out with him when she came back to town. [REDACTED] stated she texted him telling him that she was in SLC. He told her that she should come by. [REDACTED] showed me the text messages on her phone. I photographed them with my phone.

[REDACTED] stated that the last two messages she sent were "I really hope that doesn't happen a lot, I kind of can't believe they just happened." [REDACTED] read the last message as stating "I kind of can't believe that just happened." I mentioned in the interview having our crime lab photograph the messages. I Later found that Greg had the same messages and more on his phone and I had those messages photographed by crime lab.

I asked if there was anything else that [REDACTED] thought I should know. She answered that she thought it was strange someone was standing at the bottom of the stairs. She stated that it almost seemed planned. [REDACTED] stated that the man was laughing and acting like he knew something. She thought it was strange.
